HEALTH, peace and the new vigor which comes from restful days and quiet nights, filled through all their dewy hours with sweet sleep—sleep which knits up the raveled sleeve of care and pleasures which stimulate the frame and warm the blood like ancient wine."

So wrote W. H. Murray (known as Adirondack Murray), the well-known lover of nature and out-door life, and nothing could be more true than this irresistible call to America's colossal Summer Paradise.

Magnificent mountain ranges, wooded valleys and limpid lakes. Rushing rivers and awe-inspiring forests. Sandy, porous soil, with perfect immunity from fever. Fine woods and enchanting drives. Perfect camping facilities right in the heart of unspoiled nature.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS WEST VIRGINIA

Summer in the mountains of West Virginia is a revelation—10 to 20 degrees cooler than the majority of Northern resorts. This is due to the altitude—2,000 feet. Fragrant forests and innumerable springs. Golf on one of the finest 18-hole courses in America. Tennis on perfect courts. Mountain trails for foot or saddle.
